Sandwich packages recalled due to possible listeria contamination

The Kane County Health Department is advising that Lipari Foods, LLC has issued a voluntary recall of Premo Brand and Fresh Grab turkey and Swiss submarine sandwiches produced and packaged by sister company JLM due to potential contamination of Listeria monocytogenes.

No illnesses have been reported to date in connection with this problem, however the products were distributed to food service and retail stores in Illinois and several other states.

Products were distributed under the following brand names: Premo Brand & Fresh Grab. The affected products can be identified by clicking here.

Listeria monocytogenes an organism, which can cause serious and sometimes fatal infections in young children, frail or elderly people, and others with weakened immune systems. Although healthy individuals may suffer only short-term symptoms such as high fever, severe headache, stiffness, nausea, abdominal pain and diarrhea, Listeria infection can cause miscarriages and stillbirths among pregnant women.

Consumers who have purchased these recalled products should not consume them. Consumers should discard the products or return them to the point of purchase. Media calls can be directed to Michelle Voss, Michelle.Voss@liparifoods.com, (586) 447-3500 ext. 9619. Consumers with questions should call Customer Service at 800-729- 3354, 8:15 am – 4:30 pm, EST, Monday through Friday.
