HIV Consortium marks HIV Testing Day June 27

With an estimated 250,000 Americans currently unaware that they are HIV positive, the Kane County HIV Consortium is promoting events surrounding National HIV Testing Day, June 27, as an opportunity for people to learn their HIV status.

- Ryan White's mom, Jeanne White Ginder, will discuss her son and the reauthorization of the Ryan White Treatment Modernization Act 1 p.m., Wednesday, June 24, in Academic and Professional Center, Waubensee Community College, Route 47 and Waubensee Drive, Sugar Grove. More information is available by contacting Lynne Kennedy, Open Door Development Director, at (630) 695-1093, ex. 19.
- Renz Prevention Center will be at Hunters Dance Club 1932 E Higgins Road, in Elk Grove Village on Thursday June 25 and Friday June 26. There will be a raffle on both nights and free HIV testing. More information available at (847) 697-1221
- Free testing will be conducted during a National HIV Testing Day Health Fair, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturday, June 27, at the Open Door Clinic's parking lot, 157 S. Lincoln Ave., Aurora. A free lunch will be provided. The Health Fair is being sponsored by Open Door Clinic and Salud Latino/Latino Health. More information is available by calling (630) 264-1819.

Members of the Kane County HIV Consortium are the Kane County Health Department, Open Door Clinic, Salud Latina and the Renz Center.
